What are we aiming for?

Your donation will go towards securing Llew Summers large bronze sculpture, Flight, for the people of Christchurch. Our aim is to permanently place this work on the shores of the Avon-Heathcote Estuary, near the distinctive Mount Pleasant Community Centre.

Who is behind it?

A small group of local residents, backed by the MPCC, are spearheading this campaign and your support is vital.

A local resident legacy

Nationally recognised sculptor Llew Summers lived and worked in Christchurch – the last 30 years in the fabulous house he built in McCormack's Bay, where he was a well-known figure in the local community – as a sculptor of astonishing creative output and a person of warmth, generosity and vitality.

His monumental artworks in concrete and bronze can be seen from Kaitaia to Wanaka. Flight (2018) was his last large bronze, and while the majority of earlier works affirmed his love of the human figure later winged works add a spiritual dimension, as well as expressing his love for the natural world. Llew's works enhance the landscape in many parts of Aotearoa and Flight would quickly become an iconic Christchurch landmark.

Where it will land?

Flight will find a permanent home on the shores of the Avon-Heathcote Estuary (McCormacks Bay). The sculpture will be clearly visible from the Coastal Pathway and the Main Road Causeway, a tribute to its environment and the many migratory and coastal birds.
